HISTORY

In 2015 we co-hosted an event called 'Meet the Maker'. Daniel Kinne, a coffee farmer, chairman and founding member of PNG's HOAC, came to New Zealand to speak about his farm and business. Specifically he spoke of the difference that a fair trade relationship is making in the lives of the communities connected with HOAC. The challenges they face, from access to clean water, to the lack of sealed roads in the remote highlands where coffee grows best. HOAC has looked to fair trade to provide the support that the government was not providing, and in turn grown their farming expertise and business acumen.
